

OYLER WINS IN SCHOOL BOARD RACE; GREGG, GUISE CLOSE

Guy Jack Oyler, Highland Ave., won the Republican nomination for Gettysburg School director in Tuesday's primary and the result for the Democratic nomination is so close that decision awaits Friday's official count of the ballots.

Oyler received 349 votes to 163 for Harry Ekdahl and 127 for H. George Louser III to secure the Republican nomination for school director.

On the Democratic side, the unofficial tabulation showed 154 votes for Ronald Gregg and 153 for Dr. Elizabeth Guise.

WELSHONCE WINS
John A. Welshonce, the only incumbent borough councilman to have any opposition for nomination, won easily in a field of three for the GOP nomination in the Third Ward. Welshonce had 82 votes to 64 for James R. Feather and 55 for Donald W. Rohrbaugh.

William G. Weaver and M. Hardy Nichols were unopposed for the Burgess nomination by the Republican and Democratic parties, respectively, but each found a number of votes for his opponent registered by fellow party members.

Gilbert Lupp, unopposed Democratic nominee for borough tax collector, conducted a sticker campaign for the Republican nomination as well. The Republicans gave J. Herbert Weikert, the incumbent, 599 votes and gave Lupp 41. In the Democratic voting Lupp received 224 votes and Weikert, who had made no campaign for votes on that ticket, received nine written-in votes.

MANY WRITE-INS
Most of Gettysburg's written-in votes were placed by those who sought to provide candidates for the three Gettysburg area school auditors post to be filled at November's election. There were no candidates on the ballot for any of the three offices which came into existence with the merging of Gettysburg and Freedom school districts this summer.

Pending the official count it appears that Richard Eisenhart won the Republican nomination for the two-year term with six votes, the largest listed for any one candidate among the 35 written in for the office in Gettysburg's four precincts and Freedom Twp. Philip Neth, with four votes, appears to be the top candidate for the four-year term among the Republicans and John Hewitt, with four votes, apparently noses out Dr. Gerald Doo with three, for the nomination for the six-year term. Hewitt's and Eisenhart's names appear among the candidates for all three offices. John Fox, Harry Ekdahl and Roy Zinn were among others who received votes in all three contests.

There were ten different persons written in for the two-year Democratic nomination, with Kenneth Murdock easily outdistancing the rest with 20 votes. Only five were listed for the four-year term and Jay Brown received 28 of the 32 votes cast. Paul B. Fox was given the Democratic nomination for the six-year term as school auditor with 28 votes out of 35 cast for seven persons.

The results in Gettysburg districts follow:

Old Friends Meet Again

ATTLEE VISITS EISENHOWER IN OFFICES TODAY

The Right Honorable Earl Attlee, former prime minister of Great Britain, visited informally for about 45 minutes this morning with former President Eisenhower in the latter's office. There was no statement at the conclusion of their visit. General Eisenhower said, as he walked to the automobile with his guest, "It's a great pleasure to meet with my old friend again." The two men were friends abroad during and after the second world war.

When asked if he had read Sherman Adams' memoirs, the former president said he hadn't, that he thought they were to be published in June.

Attlee arrived at the Gettysburg Airport at 9:50 o'clock this morning in a twin-motor plane. He was greeted by Col. Robert Schulz, General Eisenhower's military aide, and then driven to the former President's offices here. General Eisenhower met his guest at the door and after they were photographed the two men went inside for a personal chat.

SPEAKS IN CHICAGO
Attlee was accompanied by Paul Walker, Cleveland, Ohio, president of the United World Federalists who will hold their annual general assembly in Chicago Saturday when they will be addressed by the former prime minister.

Clement Attlee (as he was known before he received his earldom in 1955) served as prime minister from 1945 to 1955.

PLAQUE FOR PROF
Dr. C. Allen Sloat, professor of chemistry at Gettysburg College, was given a surprise honor by members of his physical chemistry class on Tuesday morning. When the class assembled for instruction, they presented Dr. Sloat with a plaque in appreciation for his services as their teacher.

If true, this is a setback for both the elected regime of Premier John M. Chang and for U.S. Lt. Gen. Carter B. Magruder, the commander of United Nations forces who had urged the rebel junta to return power to the regular authorities.

The radio station, controlled by the military committee of Lt. Gen. Chang Do-young, broadcast what it said was a statement of full support by Lee.

There were no reports of open military opposition to the army rebels who seized control of Seoul Tuesday. But the rebel troops dug foxholes on the northeast edge of the city along one of the main routes from the demarcation line between South and North Korea, where most of the South Korean army is on station.

Riding Club Plans For Show Advanced

The Gettysburg Riding Club made final plans for the annual Horse Show to be held June 18 at the Twin Lakes ring at its meeting Tuesday night at the engine house.

President John Teeter announced a meeting of committee chairmen from the Riding Club and Rotary Club, which jointly sponsor the show, at the home of Dr. Bruce N. Wolff next Tuesday evening, May 23, at 8:30 o'clock.

June 6 and 15 were announced as "work days" at which all members of the Riding Club are to be at the ring to get the ring in shape and complete the final preparations for the event.

HUNDREDS SEE MUMMASBUUG FLAG RAISING

Time turned back a full century Tuesday evening on the Mummasbuug baseball diamond as residents of that community re-enacted a flag-raising ceremony of May 16, 1861, as part of the county's observance of the Civil War centennial.

Col. J. M. Sheads, American history teacher at Gettysburg High School, was the speaker after three Boy Scouts of the community raised a 34-star American flag, made by three women of the town as three other women of the area had done a century ago.

Luther M. Lady, member of the county Civil War Centennial commission and of the committee that planned the Mummasbuug celebration, presided over the program that included selections by the Gettysburg Junior High School band, recollections by former residents of the community and "Yankee Doodle" sung by a Mummasbuug chorus wearing costumes of the mid-nineteenth century.

Sons of Union Veterans' Reserves from New Oxford and Gettysburg, under the command of Lt. Arthur Weaver and dressed in their Civil War blues, and an honor guard of Armvets from Fairfield commanded by Chester Shriver added color to the crowd of several hundred who gathered for the ceremony.

After selections by the high school band directed by Neil Justice, the invocation was given by the Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons, pastor of the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren. Then the crowd stood to sing one stanza of "America."

Mr. Lady then read an excerpt from a county newspaper of 100 years ago referring to the Mummasbuug flag raising of 1861 and introduced Mrs. Harry Harmon.

WILL DEFER PLANTING

The Adams County commissioners at a meeting this morning in the courthouse decided to defer planting of shrubbery at the new Adams County home until later this summer. The decision was made after Harry Bieseker, Cashtown nurseryman, told them that "it is a bad time of the year to transplant trees and bushes."

Miss Beatrice Robinson, district representative from the state Welfare Department, conferred with the commissioners. She said the county should have two full-time case workers instead of one.

County aid grants were approved for Oxford Twp. in the amount of $1,396.88 for highway resurfacing on Route A6810, and for Butler Twp., $2,250 for repair to Route 34, a distance of 7.392 feet.

The commissioners were informed by West and Wells, engineering firm, that the bridge at the boundary line of Oxford and Mt. Pleasant Twp. on the south branch of Conewago Creek be widened to 22 feet as had been recommended originally. A survey May 8 showed only 16 passenger cars and four trucks crossed the bridge, while another survey on May 12 showed 28 passengers cars and 10 trucks crossed the span.

The state Highway Department has recommended the road be widened to 24 feet with an 18-foot approach. The commissioners want the 22-foot wide bridge with a 16-foot approach and five-foot shoulders.

SHARRAH SERVICES

Funeral services for Allen Sharrah, 63, a fruitgrower-farmer, who died Saturday afternoon at his home, Orrtanna R. 1, were held this afternoon from the Bender Funeral Home, with Rev. Henry Early officiating. Interment was in the Flohr's Lutheran Church Cemetery, McKnightstown. Pallbearers were Gilbert Hartzell, Samuel Baumgardner, Clarence and Warren Deardorff, Clark Barnes and William Chamberlain.

VOTERS BAN LIQUOR SALE IN LATIMORE

County residents named approximately 500 Republican and Democratic candidates for various local offices at Tuesday's primary election.

In Latimore the voters also banned liquor in their township. In a referendum on "Do you favor the granting of liquor licenses for the sale of liquor in the Township of Latimore, Adams County, Pennsylvania," 210 of the voters said "no" against 166 who said "yes."

Those residing within the Upper Adams and Lower Adams school districts voted for the first time for auditors for the merged school districts. Upper Adams had no difficulties selecting candidates for both Republican and Democratic tickets for the three auditor offices opening in Upper Adams — there were candidates on the ballots when the voters went to the polls.

NAMES WRITTEN IN

In the Lower Adams there were a variety of written-in candidates, but there were also concerted efforts on the Democratic side in some districts to name suitable candidates. The nominees among the Democrats were Cloyd Kaiser, New Oxford, for the two-year term; Russell Shriver, New Oxford, for the four-year term, and Dorothy Baugher, New Oxford, for the six-year term. They received 78, 72 and 83 votes respectively.

On the Republican side, the official count Friday will determine the winner. It appeared from the unofficial count that C. Robert Brothers, New Oxford, with six votes, probably won the nomination for the two-year auditor's post while E. H. Trone, Tyrone, with four votes may have won the six-year nomination.

Tax collector nominations provided the bulk of the contests among the townships and boroughs. In Menallen Twp. the voters gave Joseph Gochenauer, the incumbent, a whopping 309 to 43 victory over the closest of his four opponents for tax collector on the Republican ticket, Gochenauer was also given the Democratic nomination by write-ins and courthouse officials held that the tallies for the various offices showed 97 voters went to the polls to vote for Gochenauer and no one else.

NEARBY VICTORS

Edwin L. Trimmer won the Democratic tax collector nomination 126 to 55 over Betty J. Reedy in Straban Twp. The incumbent, Donald J. Rhodes, won the Republican nomination with 142 votes to 123 for John K. Lott, 50 for Richard H. Phiel and 15 for Wayne K. Shields.

In a battle between numerous candidates for tax collector in Cumberland Twp. Grover Yingling won the Republican nod and William Sentz, the Democratic nomination.

An unusual method was employed briefly in Highland Twp. to cut down the number of different write-ins. Someone noted that there were many blanks on the ballot and posted in the voting booths a list of suggested Republican and Democrat candidates for the offices. Crosby N. Hartzell, commissioners' clerk, said the lists were soon removed, and while such action is a violation of the law with a possible $500 fine, it is not expected that any prosecution will follow because the listing apparently was "done in all innocence."

BOWERS SERVICES

Funeral services for Charles D. Bowers, 70, formerly of Littlestown, who died on Sunday at the home of his niece, Miss Ada Erb, 201 Westminster Ave., Hanover, were conducted this morning at 10 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. Cyrus Strite, pastor of Piney Creek Church of the Brethren, near Taneytown, officiated and was assisted by the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ United Church of Christ, near Littlestown. Interment was in Rest Haven Cemetery, Hanover. Pallbearers were Samuel Harman, Mervin Harner, Washington Koonz, Charles Shoemaker, Bernard Flickinger and Oscar Sentz.

The Democratic Women's Club of Adams County will hold a public card party this evening at 8 o'clock at the Lincoln Logs, along the Lincoln Highway east of here, the president, Mrs. John Lippy, has announced.

Other officers elected were: First vice president, A. B. Ross; second vice president, Guy Donaldson; third vice president, Donald Bucher; tail-twisters, Carl Frogner and Francis Schultz; Lion tamer, Harvey Walter and Dorsey Schultz; directors, Kenneth W. Harold Day reported on the state convention he attended as a delegate of the club. Others who attended were Mervin Weikert, B. E. Benner and Edgar Newman.

The next meeting will be held May 30 at the home of Banks Benner.

EXCHANGE TO SEND SENIORS TO STATE MEET

The Exchange Club, at its Tuesday evening meeting in the Lamp Post Tea Room, voted to send a delegation of Gettysburg Senior High School students to Penn State University May 24 to attend the one-day Park and Recreation Career conference.

Dr. Craig Coombs, director of the recreation program at Penn State, will be in charge of the program. The students will leave Gettysburg at 7 a.m. May 24 and return about 5 o'clock that same day.

The club acted on a request from recreation director Lee Raffensperger. It will pay all expenses, including the noon-day meal.

The group voted a $10 donation to the Adams County 4-H groups. John J. Sientz, chairman of the interclub committee, announced that plans are being made to hold a joint meeting with the Kiwanis Club sometime this summer on the rec field; a joint meeting with the newly organized Shippensburg club; and the customary joint meeting with the Hanover club. The annual whip party will be held August 22.

Robert P. Snyder, presented the financial report and the estimated budget for the coming year. Both were approved.

The Pennsylvania Junior Republic, a boys school in North-western Pennsylvania, thanked the club for a $30 donation.

Twenty-four members attended with President Ralph K. Will in charge.

With no county-wide decisions to be made, only 31 1/2 per cent of the registered Democrats cast ballots while 44 1/4 per cent of the Republicans went to the polls. A total of 8,659 ballots were cast in the 44 voting districts or 37 1/2 per cent of the registered voters.

HOME FOLK DECIDE

The GOP race for the sheriff nomination resulted in 2,357 votes for Renner and 2,225 for Cluck with the candidates' votes from their home districts playing a key role in determining the outcome.

Renner not only carried Liberty Twp. but in his native Littlestown he ran very strongly. In the Second Ward there he got 123 votes to one for Cluck.

Cluck carried his home district of Cumberland but in District No. 2 the margin was only two votes. Some political observers read into those results a byproduct of the recent zoning battle in Cumberland where Cluck is a member of the board of township supervisors.

OTHER NOMINEES

Nominees for other Republican offices had no contests and won their party's nod with these complimentary votes: Associate Judge, R. M. Stary, Huntingtown Twp., 4,053; clerk of the courts (Clark E. It was noted that the districts' shares are determined by the student population in the jointure. A check for $2,659 was received from the federal government in payment for children whose parents are employed on federal projects.

Routine bills amounting to $19,336.86 were approved for payment.

5 NIELSENS GIVE PROGRAM ON DENMARK

Dr. and Mrs. Arne Nielsen and their three children traced the history of Denmark and portrayed the culture of that country in song, dance and story before a near-capacity audience in Brua hall auditorium Tuesday evening. Mrs. Basil Crapster, treasurer of the Friends of the Library, presided. The Friends and the music department of the college were sponsors of the program.

Mrs. Crapster said the current membership campaign has brought in $825 so far and the food booth on pageant day brought in $134. She announced the Friends of the Library will sponsor the play "The Loud Red Patrick" at the Totem Pole Playhouse July 24.

The Nielsen family presented folk dances in costume authentic for various sections of Denmark. Dr. Nielsen, who is a guest professor in the Romance language department of the college this term, read a Hans Christian Andersen tale "The Short Collar." Inga Nielsen sang folk songs and played several piano compositions by Carl Nielsen, a modern Danish composer. Eric Nielsen sang folk songs and Mrs. Nielsen explained differences between Danish and American housewives. The former have fewer modern conveniences and prefer to spend their money on a beautiful chair or work of art. Flower shops in Denmark are as numerous as drug stores here, she said. Noting differences in the schools, she said, in Denmark school sessions are held six days a week from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. and there are only six weeks of vacation in the summer. All pupils are required to learn English, French and German. Education is compulsory to age of 14 when half the pupils quit and only seven per cent are selected for higher education.

Birgit Nielsen said young people are more closely knit into their families than here and girls there have fewer smart clothes than in America. Almost every one rides a bike and there are few cars. She described Denmark as a progressive country less than half the size of Pennsylvania where a third of people's income goes for taxes but they get medical and dental care among their benefits. Farming is the main occupation but industry is growing rapidly, she said.

The Niensens will return to Denmark this summer after a trip to the west coast.

IRS Defends Its Sale Of Horses

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service says its seizure of three horses from an Amish farmer in Pennsylvania was a necessary but "unpleasant and difficult task."

The IRS issued a statement Tuesday defending its actions in taking the horses from Valentine Y. Byler of New Wilmington, Pa., to settle his tax debt.

The IRS said there has been considerable misunderstanding in the case. Officials said they had no choice under the law except to confiscate the horses. Byler, a member of the Old Order Amish, objected to paying the social security tax on the grounds that it is an insurance premium rather than a tax.

The IRS said it had been trying for five years to persuade Byler to pay the tax.

MORE THAN SHARE

"Adams County can well be proud of the devotion to duty displayed by its men in the five major wars in which our nation has been involved," the speaker said. He paid tribute also as equally important the services rendered on the home front. He noted that 119 countians gave their lives in World War II and that the 83 countians who lost their lives in the first World War placed this county far above the national average of two deaths for each 100 men in service. The ratio was five for each hundred from this county, he said.

The program closed with the singing of "God Bless America" and the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Simmons. Song leader was Charles Boyer who also led the chorus in their singing of "Yankee Doodle."

Arendtsville School Seniors Plan

Pageant: A historical pageant portraying the history of the development of the Arendtsville schools will be presented by members of the graduating class and other students at the annual commencement exercises Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Arendtsville high school auditorium.

Class night exercises will be held Thursday evening in the school auditorium.

At the commencement exercises the professional will be played by the Arendtsville school band. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Ernest W. Brindle, Arendtsville. The address of welcome will be delivered by Russell Kane, a member of the class. A solo, "Hark, Hark, the Lark," will be rendered by Miss Mildred Stambaugh.

Hoover Here Again Sunday:

Former President Herbert Hoover passed through Gettysburg Sunday enroute to Harrisburg after a week-end spent in the mountains at Blue Ridge Summit. He planned to stop off a few hours in Chicago this morning, en route to Alto. Saturday night, the former President was a guest of William S. Culbertson, former ambassador to Chile, at Blue Ridge Summit, in the South mountains. A number of political leaders and publishers joined Hoover there, although his former secretary, Lawrence Richey, who also accompanied Hoover here, said that there was no political significance to the meeting.

Tourist Traffic Hits High

Mark: More than 3,760 persons toured the Gettysburg battlefield on Sunday, officials in the national park office announced today. It was the largest crowd to travel over the battlefield roads in a single day so far this season.

Although most of the cars bore Pennsylvania and Maryland license plates a number were seen from California, Virginia, Florida, Georgia, Connecticut, Ohio and Massachusetts.

It is believed by many local observers that tourist traffic into Gettysburg this year will exceed the past four seasons.

Angle Parking Limited To 3

Hours From 8 A.M. To 8 P.M.; One Hour In Parallel Area; Half-Hour In Square: With one dissenting vote, Gettysburg's town council adopted amendments to the present parking ordinance at the second regular meeting of council this month, Monday evening, in the fire engine house.

The amended ordinance provides for: Three-hour parking from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. in angle parking areas.

One-hour parking in parallel parking areas.

Continuation of the 30-minute parking limit in center square from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

In all these zones there is no limit on parking between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m. unless the burgess exercises his discretionary power to erase "emergency" one-hour parking signs in center square or any borough street on Saturday or any day preceding a holiday.

100 Persons At "Open House" In Hospital Here: The Annie M. Warner hospital held "open house" on Monday to encourage a more general and intimate interest among Gettysburgians and Adams Countyans in the only institution of its kind in this county.

The occasion marked the fifteenth anniversary of the opening of the hospital and was tendered to demonstrate from first hand knowledge the development and growth of the institution.

Monday evening at six o'clock Gettysburg's two civic clubs, Rotary and Lions, met in joint dinner session at the Eagle hotel, where they were shown moving

Today's Talk

BE A LOVER!
Long ago an inspired poet wrote that "all the world loves a lover." He had in mind the love of one human for another. This Talk will treat of the love of all things beautiful—human beings, the springtime, the trees, the flowers, the brook, the waterfall, the song of the bird, the winding path, the storm, the weather beaten rock, the deserted homestead.

Be a lover of everything that is beautiful—and then spread this love so that it will permeate into those things that are not beautiful and revive life in them!

Love should always soften our sentiments and make them to shine brilliantly. It should make of us very kind human beings, and build within us a living fire of sympathy for all in need.

Be a lover and you not only will learn control to a larger degree in all ways, but your appreciation will broaden.

As we love, we feel kinder and we automatically forget the unimportant in life and character and concentrate our feelings upon the higher and better things.

No one ever was turned away from Christ because of sickness in mind, soul or body. Immediately did He look into that person's heart and understand—and heal, as well as forgive. His mission was not to condemn but to save.

He who gives out love gives out life.

Be a lover!
Enter each day with love in your heart. Put it into your work and into your associations, and into your appreciation of everything that is worthy and beautiful.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Leaving Things Behind"

Just Folks

A WOMAN'S LOVE
There are times a woman's love
For a man stands out, I guess,
More'n usual, like as when
Sickness comes or else distress.But I reckon that it shines
Brighter than a tallow dip
When a man is goin' away.
An' she comes ter pack his grip.'Pears to me she seems to think
More about his comforts then;
Puts in slippers, ies' as though
They was worn by travelin' men.
Fusses round an' round the room
Hopin', maybe, 'at she'll see
Somethin' 'at perhaps he'll need—
Jes' 'as thoughtful as can be.
Seen her pack that grip o' mine
Hundred times, I guess, an' more;Heard her sigh while doin' it
Kneelin' on the bedroom floor.
An' I never went away
On the shortest kind o' trip
Without feelin' 'at her heart
Had been packed inside my grip.

Sunday night the Rev. Mr. Kugle preached at vespers services. A vote conducted by a representative from the synod resulted in an almost unanimous election. After the service he informed the pulpits committee and council of his acceptance.

He was graduated from York High School, Elizabethtown College and Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary and served as assistant pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Syracuse, N. Y., from 1955 to 1956. He has been pastor of his present charge since 1957.

He will move soon to the parsonage in New Oxford with his wife and daughter, Cathy.

FAIRFIELD IS 3-0 VICTIM

Fairfield High (5-2) dropped a 3-0 decision at Smithsburg, Md., Tuesday afternoon in a game which resolved itself into a pitching duel between John Snively, Fairfield, and Huff of Smithsburg.

The Marylanders tallied twice in the bottom of the second and added an insurance run in the sixth. Fairfield, limited to three hits, left 11 runners stranded on the bases.

Today Fairfield can clinch the Adams County title with a victory over second-place Bermudian at York Springs.

PUBLIC SALE OF LIQUOR ON SUNDAY GAINS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Public sales of liquor, wine and beer on Sunday will be legal—in a limited way—in Pennsylvania shortly. It's the first such dent in the state's centuries-old Blue Law.

Actually, it's a pretty small dent. It will be legal only to buy the drinks in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh hotels, and then only between 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. in rooms customarily used for serving food. The change is expected to boost the number of conventions.

Philadelphia voters approved the Sunday Sales in Tuesday's primary by an unofficial count of 156,017 to 74,811. The staid Quaker City in the last 30 years or so also has similarly approved Sunday movies and sports.

LEADS IN PITTSBURGH

The liquor proposition maintained a steady margin of almost 2-1 in Pittsburgh, where paper ballots slowed the count. With 256 precincts of 436 reported, it was 40,591 in favor and 23,691 against. In Pittsburgh, the vote on the liquor proposition was 61,817 for and 36,334 against with 370 of 436 precincts reported. Paper ballots slowed the count.

REQUIRE CERTIFICATE

The Pittsburgh Council of Churches, a Protestant group, came out against the proposal. Some religious groups also opposed it in Philadelphia.

To qualify for Sunday sales, hotels must first obtain a certificate from the State Liquor Control Board. Among other things they will be required to show that their sales of food and nonalcoholic beverages will be equal to at least 55 per cent of their gross sales of food and beverages. The licensing procedure probably will take several weeks.

A limited number of private clubs now can sell liquor on Sundays to members.

Races Friday At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE—Rained-out last week, modified stock cars return to the Williams Grove Speedway at 8 p.m. this Friday for the third in the season-long series of action-packed program at Bob Richwine's racing plant.

The largest field of cars and drivers is expected for the big six-event card since start of the weekly races on April 21.

Leroy Felty, Lebanon auto mechanic, and Johnny Dubendorf, Lewistown truck driver, will head up the field of popular area chauffeurs coming in for this week's action.

Felty was the winner of the inaugural on April 21; Dubendorf was the victor of the second race on May 5.

An added attraction on this week's card will be a five-lap trophy dash for the winners of the first three 10-lap heat races.

Williams is seeking his third ERA crown. He was the National League leader in 1952 while with the New York Giants and the American League kinsman in 1959 with the Orioles. He has worked 35 innings this year, all in relief, and allowed only six earned runs. The knuckleball pitcher has a 4-1 record.

Bill Monbouquette of Boston, who fanned 17 Washington players in beating the Senators 2-1 last Friday, is the American League runner-up with a 2-36 mark. He is followed by Don Mossi of Detroit 2-39, Bob Shaw, Chicago 2-45 and Tom Sturdivant of Washington, 2-53. The leaders are based on 30 or more innings pitched.

MAHAFFEY IS THIRD

Johnny Podres of the Los Angeles Dodgers is in second place in the National League with a 1-94 ERA. The left-hander dropped his first game Monday night after winning five in succession. He has yielded 11 earned runs in 51 innings.

Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia is third with 2-11. Then come Warren Spahn, Milwaukee, 2-17, rookie Ken Hunt, Cincinnati, 2-25, Bob Gibson, St. Louis, 2-40, and Joey Jay, Cincinnati, 2-65.

Cool, winning hurler, gave up but two hits, one a double by Guise. He fanned nine. Johnston, the loser, also pitched good ball in allowing but four hits and striking out nine.

A practice has been scheduled for the Gettysburg squad on the recreation field Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

Hunterstown chalked up its second straight victory, both via shutouts, by blanking Brushtown 2-0 on the New Oxford field.

Shell's experts have developed many ways to make their own cars run better and last longer. Numbers indicate some of the areas deserving attention, as described below.

Shell recommends 21 ways to make your car last longer

Shell Research scientists dedicate their working lives to the care and feeding of automobiles.

They can offer dozens of tips on prolonging the life of your second biggest investment. Here are some samples which you will find useful.

1. Break in a new car properly. Don't accelerate at full throttle or change gears abruptly. Sudden shocks to gears in the rear axle and transmission can cause lasting damage.
2. Warm up slowly. Facing an engine to warm it up ages it fast. A short warm-up at moderate speed is good for your car even in summer, and even more necessary during colder months. But racing your cold engine to warm up may damage critical working parts before lubrication can be fully established.
3. Use your engine to save your brake linings. When you see you'll have to slow down, take your foot off the accelerator early and let the engine's compression do some of the job.
4. Have your engine's spark timing set to proper specifications. The spark timing determines whether your plugs fire at exactly the right instant. With incorrect timing you lose power and cut mileage. Also your car may knock. Chronic knocking can damage your engine.
5. Use a gasoline that controls knock. If knocking persists, you may need a gasoline with more anti-knock components, for a higher octane rating.
6. Learn to read tail pipe smoke signals. Blue smoke means too much oil is getting into the combustion chambers.
7. Have your oil checked whenever you get gasoline. An oil check is a simple safety check for your engine. It is free—takes less than a minute.
8. Avoid high speeds and save your tires. Every extra mile your tires last is money in your pocket. High speeds increase wear drastically—by as much as 80% over normal wear.
9. Rotate tires every 5,000 miles. Your tires will last longer because they will wear evenly, and at the same rate. Note: See your Shell dealer for a set of valve caps; they will prevent air from getting out and dirt from getting in around the tire valve.
10. Check wheel alignment and balance. The shock of hitting curbs or dropping into deep holes can cause misalignment. This drags the wheel at an angle to the line of travel. Nothing wears tires out more quickly.
11. Save your battery with 11¢ worth of baking soda. Dirt and corrosion can shorten your battery's life by many months. Wash the battery off with a solution of baking soda and water. Use a wire brush if necessary. Then rinse thoroughly with warm water. Ask your Shell dealer to check the terminals.
12. Change your oil filter element every other oil change. Abrasive specks as small as 1/1000th of an inch in diameter can shorten engine life. The oil filter element in your car helps keep specks of metal and other abrasives out of the engine, while allowing oil to flow freely. The filter catches and holds these until it can hold no more. Then it can't work effectively.

Replacing the filter element every other oil change helps your engine to last longer.

13. Get a lubrication job regularly. Dirt and moisture can work into chassis joints and bushings. Grease can also pound out, leaving the parts unprotected.

See your Shell dealer for a Shell lubrication. He has the charts, equipment, Shell lubricants, and the skill for a really thorough job.

14. Have your car's cooling system checked twice a year. In time, the inhibitors in your antifreeze lose some of their ability to prevent rust, corrosion and sediment. Let your Shell dealer check the cooling system—including hoses and hose connections—no less than twice a year. When he drains and refills he will add a special Cooling System Protector.

15. Keep door and body panel drain holes clear to foil rust. The little drain holes at the bottom of body panels and doors can get clogged so that the panels actually hold water. Rust can then eat right through the metal. Make sure drain holes are clear.

16. Keep road salt washed off. The chemicals used to clear icy, snowy roads can eat not only the finish, but the body structure itself. Make sure you get it all off the paint and bright metal.

17. Use these tips to help your car stay new looking longer. A good coat of polish provides a film that protects your car's finish. But before you polish your car, always wash it—and always in the shade.

Some new car finishes need only a good washing, but others require waxing. It's a good idea to check your owner's manual.

18. Protect chrome against rust invasion. Chrome has millions of tiny holes which can let the moisture right through to the metal beneath. Dirt invites this invasion, so clean the chrome thoroughly and frequently, and wax it for further protection.

19. "Bandage" any minor scratches in your car's finish. Until you can have scratches refinished, keep rust from forming with a coat of touch up paint or even a strip of cellulose tape on the scratches. Use clear nail polish on scratches in the chrome.

20. Pamper carpets and upholstery. Ground in dirt wears out carpets before their time. Whisk or vacuum weekly and shampoo once in a while.

21. Let your Shell dealer help you car last. Your car may have cost thousands of dollars. After your home, this is probably your biggest single investment.

Treat it carefully. Feed it well. Let your Shell dealer help you. You will save money—and increase your driving pleasure, too.

AP Expert On Korea Tells Effect Of Military Coup That Upset Government

Editor's note: John Randolph, went to South Korea in December 1950, when the Korean War was at its height. After the armistice he moved to the AP bureau in Tokyo, where he is now general executive coordinating AP operations in Asia. Randolph is now on home leave, and from the background of 10½ years of close observation of events in Korea, he tells what lies behind the coup in South Korea.

By JOHN RANDOLPH

NEW YORK (AP) — The military coup in South Korea confirms long-standing fears that the little nation's huge army might someday prove too strong for its feeble semblance of democracy. It also underlines deposed President Syngman Rhee's ironclad subordination of the armed forces to his civilian control.

For seven years after the end of the Korean War Rhee kept his 500,000 troops—one of the largest standing armies in the world—eating peacefully out of his hand. It took only 13 months after he fell from power in a students' revolt last year for the soldiers to turn on his well-intentioned but weak successors.

BLOW TO WEST

The coup was another blow to Western hopes for democracy in the new nations of Asia and Africa. Beginning with Egypt, army dissidents have either swept away or transformed parliamentary regimes in the Sudan, Iraq, Thailand, Burma, Pakistan, Turkey, Laos and the Congo.

American irritation at the coup was shown immediately in the Seoul embassy's unusual call for support of Prime Minister John M. Chang's civilian government.

With the South Korean army in apparent physical control, this looked like a bold bid to either persuade the coup's leaders to modify their stand or else to rally national support for Chang, possibly from other army units not involved in the coup.

REASONS ARE SIMPLE

American intervention has been decisive before in Korea. It was the American embassy's indication of loss of confidence in Rhee last year that clinched the students' revolt and sent the aged president into exile in Honolulu. The reasons for the coup are simple.

The bulk of the army's enlisted men are drawn from Korea's rice farms, where grinding poverty and depression have lingered for years. Their officers—an unusually large share of the nation's educated and talented young men—are drawn from the educated classes of the towns and Korea's old nobility and country gentry.

UNDERPAID OFFICERS

Tried and tempered in the sufferings of the Korean War, passionately patriotic, terribly underpaid, and unusually idealistic, many of the younger officers have dreamed of making over their country. Egypt's fiery Nasser and Pakistan's deliberate Ayub Khan have been their principal models.

Korean farmers' hopes for reforms and price supports — high after the 1960 revolution — have been dashed by confusion in Chang's government and among the politicians in Seoul. It is said widely in Korea that the farmers, the bulk of South Korea's 23 million population, are worse off than ever before. When rice crops are bad they are in deep poverty; when the crop is good the price falls.

MILITARY MEN AROUSED OVER CENSORSHIP

Editor's Note: Why the silence at the Pentagon in the wake of the Cuban invasion? When will the joint chiefs of staff be given an opportunity to tell their side of the story on the invasion failure? Fred S. Hoffman, Defense Department spokesman, covers these points in the following article.

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — With blame for the Cuban invasion debacle starting to point more directly at them, the military chiefs have been barred by top-side orders from entering any kind of public defense or explanation.

This, on top of other recent actions muzzling the admirals and generals, has created resentment among some officers at the Pentagon who view the enforced silence on Cuba as setting up the military as a possible scapegoat.

However, an appearance before a Senate Latin-American Affairs subcommittee later this week or early next week will give Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, an opportunity to present a case for the JCS.

SOLONS EXPECT ANSWER

Although military leaders are limited in what they can say publicly, these restrictions do not apply to appearances before congressional groups. If a congressman asks a question, he expects a military man to reply with reasonable frankness.

In the wake of the Cuban fiasco, the Central Intelligence Agency, the State Department, the White House staff and the joint chiefs have been criticized in varying degrees.

By means of "background briefings"—that is, informal news conferences and talks with reporters in which the source is not identified to readers—partisans of various U.S. officials and agencies involved have aired their viewpoints. They have said, in effect, "It wasn't us—it was the other guy."

Not so the joint chiefs. Besides Lemnitzer, this highest military body includes Adm. Arleigh A.

clian of the old school, had no illusions about the dangers afloat in his army. As long as he was in control, he kept the military strictly out of politics and broke up every military clique he and his ever present national police agents could detect.

What will the army do now? Obviously it wants a cleaner, more inspiring and more energetic regime. The generals and colonel may try it on their own, or they may set up another civilian government.

Whatever they do, the army will probably remain the center of gravity in Korean politics. It was always there. But like an iceberg, most of it never showed.

CENTER PLANS ADVANCING; TO GATHER FUNDS

Arrangements for the renovation of the E. King St. school building to a community center, including plans for the financial drive, are advancing satisfactorily and with keen interest. The financial drive will begin Monday, June 12. Reports from the various groups who represent the canvassing force of approximately 75 persons, who will conduct the house to house solicitation, were heard at a meeting on Monday evening at the center building. The majority of the soliciting territories have been assigned, according to a statement from the chairman of the fund raising campaign, the Rev. William C. Karns. Co-vic chairmen for the campaign are Mrs. Robert H. Miller and Beaven F. Hanlon. A meeting of all the canvassers will be held for a briefing session on Monday, June 5.

The newly-formed organization, officially known as the Littlestown Community Center Group, is composed of representatives from 22 local organizations. Each year, at a December meeting, one member of the 22 will be elected to serve a five-year term on the recreation board. This person will then be named to this position by the Littlestown Borough Council. Members of the initial board, as appointed by the council include Dr. Richard N. Greenholt, president; Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, four years; Rev. William R. Jones, three years; Wilbur E. Mackley, two years; and Henry E. Waltman, whose term will expire in January, 1962. Two members of the board must also be members of the Littlestown Joint School Board. Publicity plans were formulated at a meeting of the publicity committee on Tuesday evening. This group includes Dr. Greenholt, the Rev. Mr. Jones, W. E. Mackley, Henry Waltman, Mrs. Luther Ritter, Edward H. Leister, Richard Selby, Mrs. Paul E. Alloff and Miss Dolores Hawk.

LIONS TO MEET
The Littlestown Lions Club will have election of officers at the semi-monthly dinner meeting on Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Starlite Room, Dutterer's Restaurant. The evening's program will be in charge of the United Nations committee, composed of Harry D. Feeser and John N. Sell. Lions are reminded that the international convention will be held in Atlantic City, N. J., June 21-24.

The Lions Club has issued invitations to local baseball players of former years to participate in the annual "Old Timers" game on Saturday, July 22, at 8 p.m. under the lights of Memorial Field. The following committees have been named for the affair: Players, Marvin F. Breighner, Richard A. Naitland and Ronald Lawhead; refreshments, Wilbur E. Mackley; Harry D. Feeser, Clayton L. Evans and Elmer W. Gall; tickets, H. Dean Stover, Edgar A. Wolfe, Charles H. Fissel and Wilson P. Greene; prizes, Robert J. Stone, sifer, Howard O. Myers, Walter C. Myers and Wilmer Dutterer.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE

The Board of Directors of the School District of the Township of Straban, Adams County, Pa., pursuant to the provisions of Act 481 of the General Assembly, approved June 25, 1947, P.L. 1145 and its amendments, hereby gives notice of its intention to adopt a resolution at a meeting of said Board to be held Monday, June 12, 1961, at 8:00 o'clock p.m., D.S.T., in the Gettysburg High School, Gettysburg, Pa., for the school year 1961-62, providing for the imposition, levying, assessing and collecting of a tax for general revenue purposes on the occupations of all residents of said school district over the age of twenty-one (21) years at the rate of one hundred (100) mills, that is ten (10c) cents on each one ($1.00) dollar of the occupational assessment of each such resident, providing for the payment, method and manner for collection of tax imposed, assessed and levied by this resolution and imposing penalty for default in payment and imposing responsibility on the husband for his wife's tax. The reason which, in the judgment of the Board, necessitates the imposition of the aforesaid tax is the need to secure funds to meet current operating expenses and rental obligation of the school district. The amount of revenue estimated to be derived from said tax is approximately $9,320.00 per year.

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP OF STRABAN, ADAMS COUNTY, PA.
of the Littlestown Women's Bowling League, was chosen Pinfall Bowling Queen at Bankert's Bowling Lanes by vote of the Men's League. Mrs. Klunk will be a candidate for the Pinfall Queen from Adams, York and Franklin Counties.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 will have a class initiation and party on Thursday at 8 p.m. at the F.O.E. home, W. King St. The rituals will be by the York Degree Team. George Nagle of Philadelphia, state vice president, will be the speaker. Special activities for the 25th anniversary observance this week will include a feature by Jimmy Caras, world's pocket billiard champion, this evening. On Friday night, there will be a big party by the Ladies' Auxiliary and on Saturday night, a dance and floor show.

Buying a
USED CAR?

Timely Tips That Can Help Protect Your Investment!

1. Choose your dealer carefully.
2. Buy only from a well established reputable dealer.
3. Buy only from a dealer who maintains his own adequate facilities to service the car you buy.
4. Insist on a WARRANTY in writing that can be "backed-up."
5. BUYING from a NEW CAR DEALER IS YOUR BEST BET. . . Most new car dealers sell locally owned trade-ins, not Used Cars obtained from Auto Auctions or distress merchandise from large cities.
6. Insist on knowing where the Used Car came from. "Ask who was the previous owner." Most new car dealers will be happy to tell you and invite you to contact the previous owner.
7. New Cars bought from Used Car Dealers . . . REMEMBER, only the New Car Dealer is authorized to extend a FACTORY WARRANTY to a buyer, NO ONE ELSE.
